

THE ABILITY TO INTERPRET DATA

by Leonard Grech - EO Test Construction
Educational Assessment Unit

[Article published in Resources in December 2002 (issue no. 16)]

A useful skill to acquire is the ability to interpret data. Teachers can develop exercises to enhance this skill in their students. Such exercises would, obviously, be more effective if based on students' experiences. What follows is an example of such an exercise which, hopefully, would be beneficial to students in the lower forms of the Primary.

Eżercizzju

Studja l-informazzjoni ta' ġol-kaxxa.

Subien:	Isem	Eta`	Delizzju
	Kevin	8	futbol
	Mark	9	futbol
	Mario	9	futbol
Bniet:	Isabella	10	futbol
	Mariella	10	basketball
	Francesca	10	basketball

*Aqra s-sentenzi li ġejjin. Aghmel ċirku madwar V (Veru) jekk l-informazzjoni taqbel ma' dik ta' ġol-kaxxa.
Aghmel ċirku madwar F (Falz) jekk l-informazzjoni ma taqbilx ma' dik ta' ġol-kaxxa.*

V F L-ismijiet tal-bniet huma itwal minn dawk tas-subien.

V F L-ismijiet tas-subien kollha jibdew bl-ittra 'M'.

V F Fl-eta`, is-subien huma iżgħar mill-bniet.

V F Is-subien kollha għalqu 8 snin.

V F Il-bniet għandhom 10 snin.

V F Is-subien iħobbu l-basketball.

V F Il-bniet kollha jħobbu l-basketball.

V F Is-subien iħobbu l-futbol.

V F It-tfal kollha jħobbu xi sport jew ieħor.